

River Invertebrate Identification Tree

Instructions: Starting from the left hand side work your way along the tree answering the questions and following the links until you reach the end of a branch. If the image matches the specimen, well done, you have successfully identified the invertebrate. © Ribble Rivers Trust